The capital city of Iceland, Reykjavik, is home to 120 000 people and a vivid culture of arts, history, literature and nightlife. Give yourself a chance to explore the city, and even go whale watching!

Also available at extra cost is the Surviving Reykjavík gamebook and badge. A guidebook to some of the most interesting places in Reykjavík, with maps, information, and easy tasks to solve. A great way to make the most of the day and see the main sights. Works best with the Reykjavik City Card (available at Tourist Information in the city). A special badge is included, commemorating your visit to the northernmost capital of the world.

The activity is ...

- ... Available from May to August
- ... Available from September to April
- ... Including a coach ride
- ... A whole day's worth of fun
- ... Run by guests (self-guided)
- ... Run by professional guides (whale watching)

About the activity:

You will go to Reykjavik by coach from our center, go on a whale watching cruise (if you wish) and still have time to walk around, shop for souvenirs or visit museums before the coach heads back to our center.

You will need to bring warm clothes for the whale watching, and a camera

Includes bus fare, whale watching cruise with guides.

(Contact us for other varieties of Reykjavik daytour, with or without i.e. whale watching, a visit to a museum or the Blue Lagoon.)
